1 TREAT IT Give your hair a boost with Bernard's Salon & Day Spa's Power Cut. The hour-long treatment refreshes hair with L'Oréal Professionnel's Power Dose, transforming once-brittle locks into soft and shiny tresses. The service costs $100, but you'll get a cut, Power Dose, blow out and a tote filled with conditioning products. Available at the Cherry Hill, N.J., and Marlton, N.J., locations. BernardsSalon.com.

2 RUSH IT It sounds too good, but it's true: you can relieve your skin woes in under 20 minutes for only $25. Head to Salon Thalia for Dermalogica's just-launched MicroZone treatment. Got lackluster skin? A flash exfoliation does the trick. The quick-fix service handles other problems like sudden (and inconvenient) breakouts, congested skin and a less-than-perfect eye area. Each session begins with Dermalogica's signature face mapping, which helps aestheticians determine any problem areas on your visage. The Curtis Center, 601 Walnut St., Suite L50, 215-625-0900, SalonThalia.com.

3 BUY IT He's already the stylist to many of Philadelphia's elite, and now powerhouse hair guru Artur Kirsh, owner of Center City's Studio C.L., has started his own line of hair-care products called Artur. Our pick? One of the line's color-friendly conditioners. Get yours at Studio C.L. (128 S. 19th St., 215-496-0604, TheStudioCL.com), or turn the page for your chance to win a basket of Artur products.

4 LOOK FOR IT You're not imagining it—your skin really does look better after a trip down the Shore. The mineral-heavy seawater and seaweed improve your complexion and firm your skin. Keep that summertime glow year-round with the Thermes Marins Saint Malo line now available at Rescue Rittenhouse Spa Lounge. The French collection of body products (a partner with the spa's must-have Valmont line) is packed with the ocean's super ingredients. 255 S. 17th St., 215-772-2766, RescueRittenhouseSpa.com.
